

GatewayBaltic is the leading Market Intelligence and Export Intelligence company in the Baltic states. We are a Gateway for businesses entering Baltic states and an opening for Baltic companies to international markets.

At the moment we are looking for curious team member for carrying out projects in Estonia for the position:

Market and Export Intelligence consultant

Are you?

- Curious enough to discover new knowledge?
- Enjoying communication with people?
- A person who likes to analyze and question?
- Interested in self development and learning?
- Professional in written and spoken English?
- Knowing what deadlines mean?
- Have university degree in Business Administration and Economics?

Your tasks will include:

- Following market information in public sources;
- Analyzing information - market segmentation, trends analysis, statistic' s analysis;
- Communication with people - carrying out interviews on phone and in person, discussing market trends and consulting;
- Creating regular market reports in English, working with numbers and text.

GatewayBaltic offers:

- Dynamic working place in a growing company
- Challenging job in an international environment
- Professional and personal development

If you think that we are looking for YOU, please let us know by sending your resume and short intro letter to: zanda.vipule@gatewaybaltic.com

latest till 16th January, 2012

